LIGHTNING PROTECTION

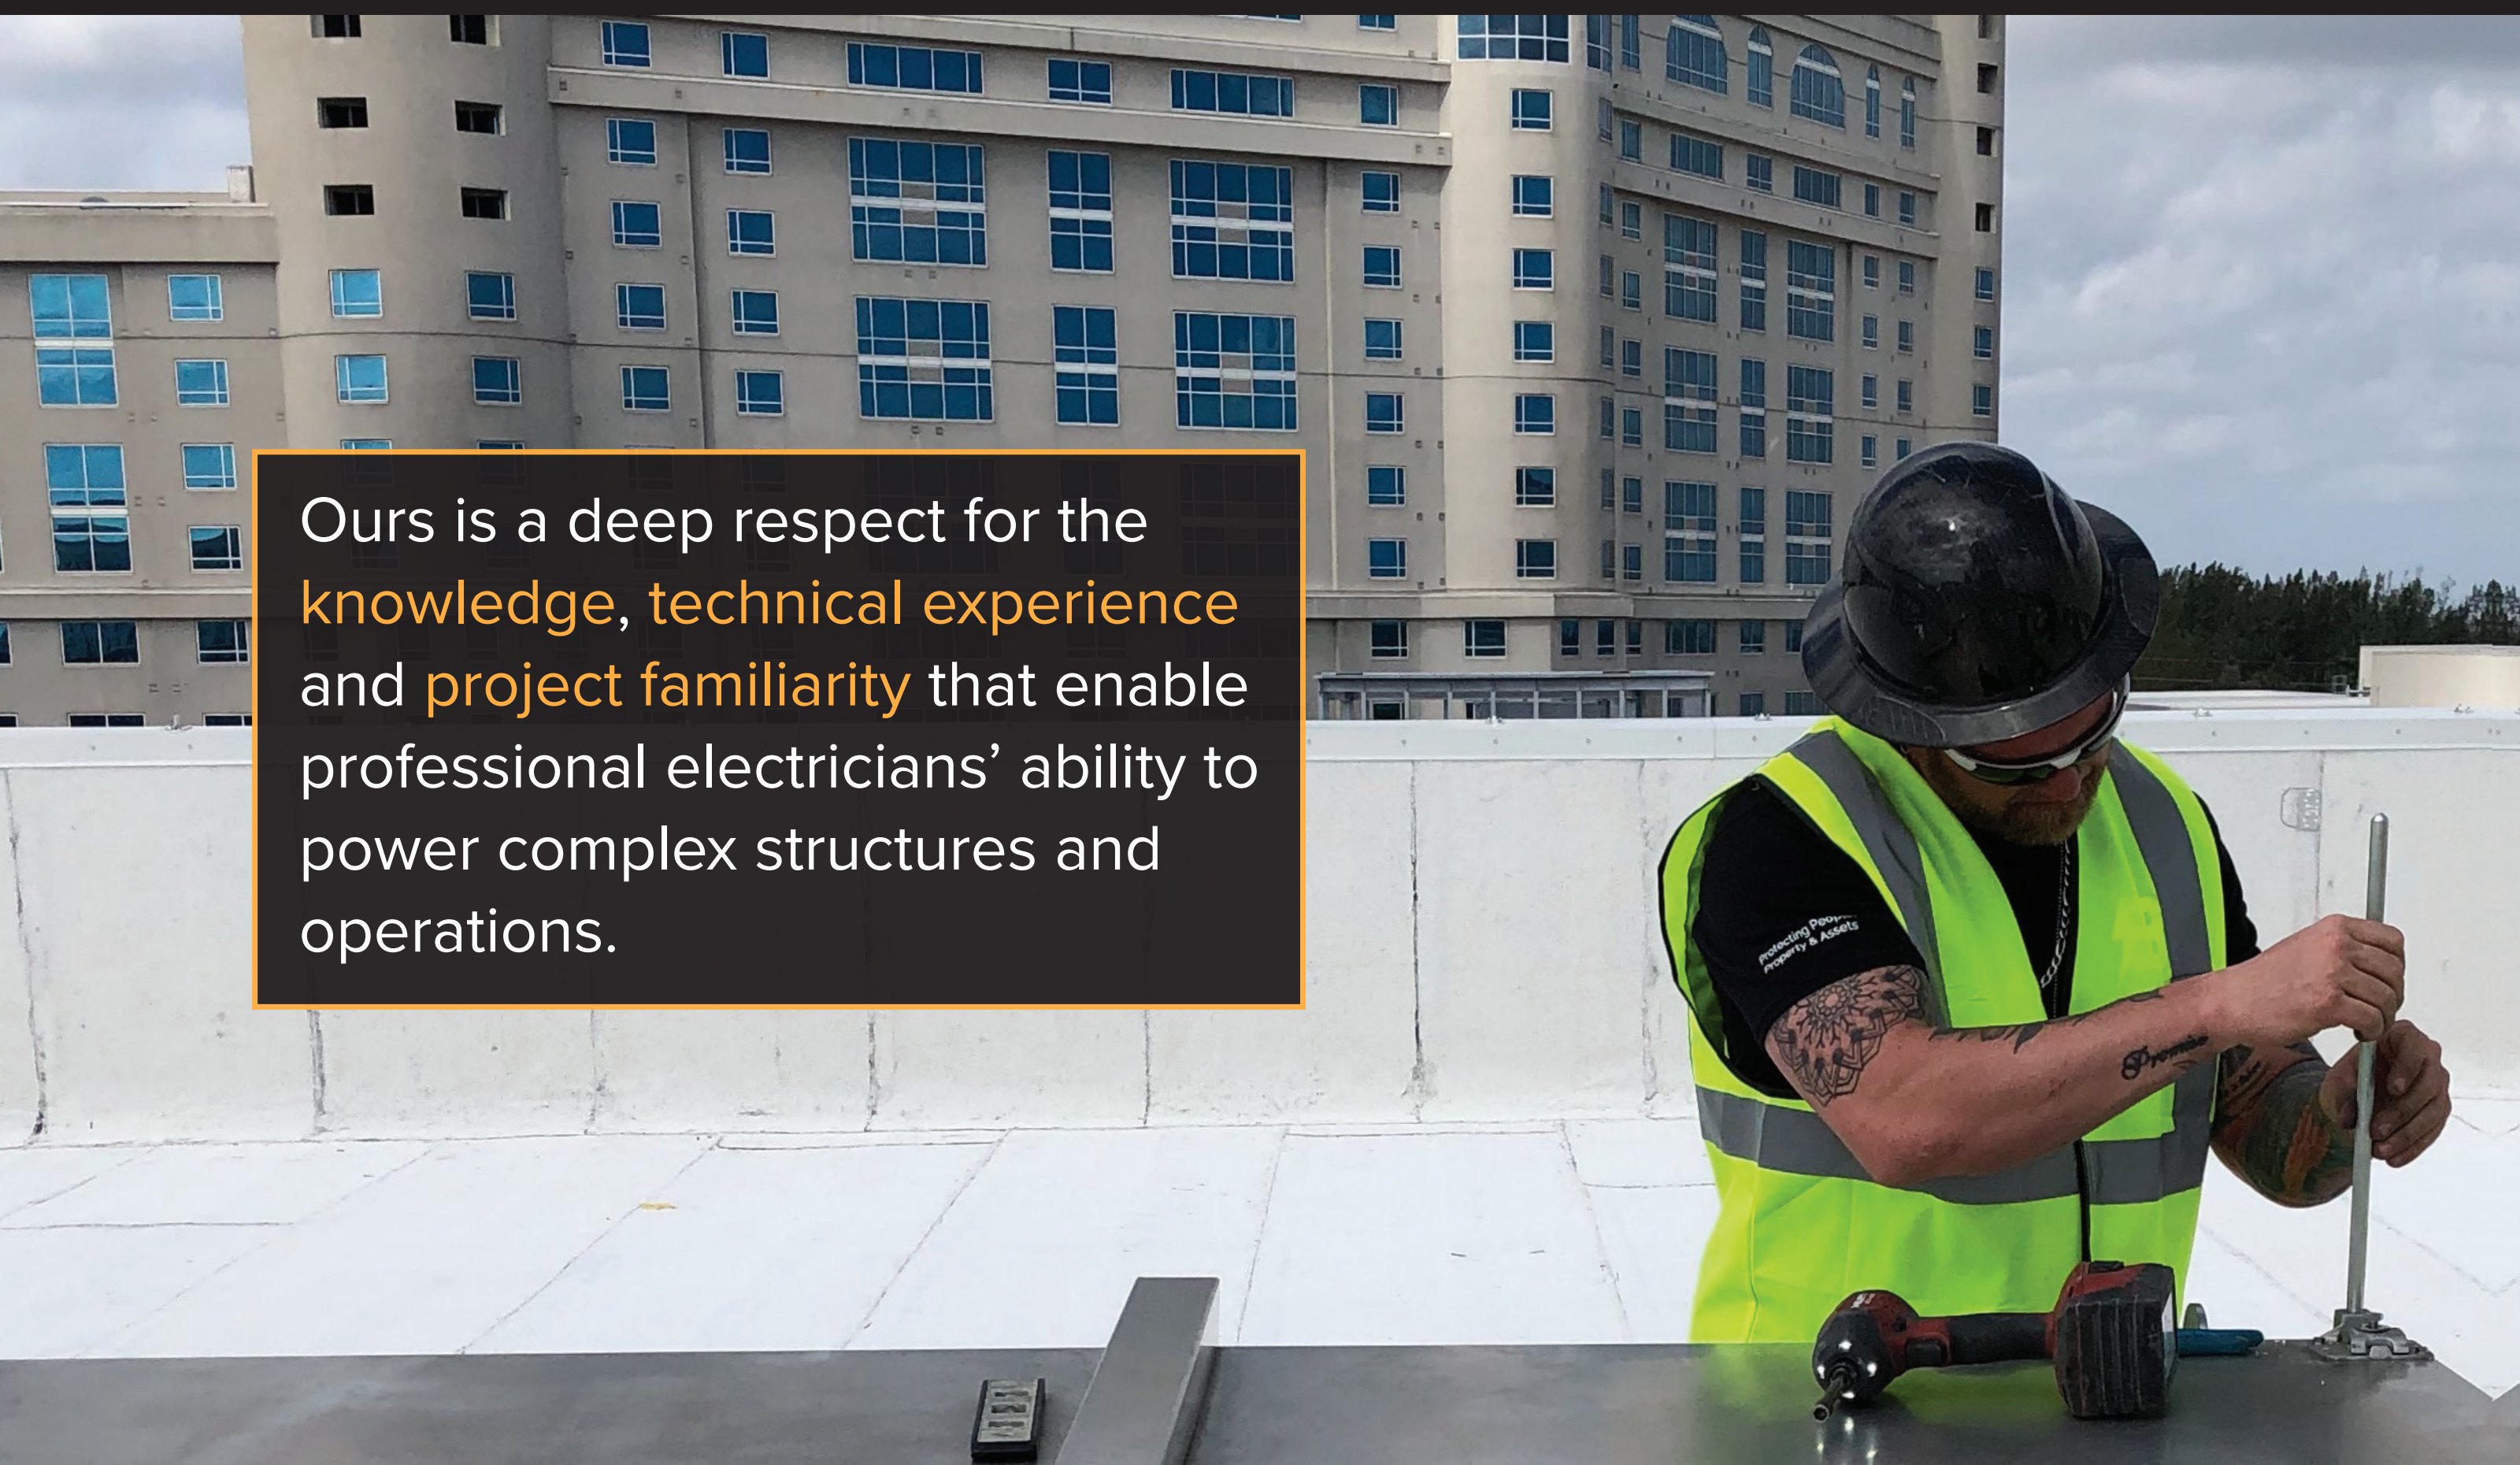

Protecting People, Property & Assets®

As BONDED LIGHTNING PROTECTION protects structures, electrical infrastructure, operations and their operators, we also efficiently protect the work and professional reputations of electricians.

Subcontractors, Bonded designs, installs, and optimizes lightning protection systems to meet the needs and complexity of modern structures' electrical infrastructure.

Ours is a deep respect for the knowledge, technical experience and project familiarity that enable professional electricians' ability to power complex structures and operations.

Our desire: Protect it, all of it—people, property and assets.

To understand how we might work together, combining professional expertise to better protect the structures you power across every commercial sector, contact Cole at 561.746.4336 and cnewman@bondedlightning.com.
